Dialogue 1

Susan: I'm thinking of taking up a new hobby.

Jenny: Great. What do you have in mind?

Susan: Actually, I enjoy doing crafts, so it may be something related to that. Do you have any advices for me?

Jenny: Oh, I know a friend who is into soap making. You can create your own soaps with different aromas, colours and forms.

Susan: Really? I'm really interested in different types of soaps! It's a great idea, thank you.

Dialogue 2

Mary: I'm so bored of doing the same things. I wish I could have a useful hobby!

Rose: What do you mean by useful?

Mary: To be honest, a hobby that will make me money in the future is better than the others.

Rose: I think I understand what you mean. You would rather do work-like hobby than something creative. How about knitting? You knit blankets, scarfs, hats, etc. and sell them.

Mary: Oh, that sounds great. I'll try. Thank you.

Dialogue 3

Lucy: I'm thinking of taking up a new hobby but I don't have enough time to deal with anything at the moment.

Lina: I understand you and we're same. Perhaps we can try something that won't take too much time.

Lucy: Give me an example, please.

Lina: What about indoor gardening? Both of us love flowers and taking care of them.

Lucy: That would be fine. I have nothing to do better. Thank you.
