Elif: The International Food Festival is really crowded today! There are many options. Are you eating local food or international food today, Mete?

Mete: I don't know yet. Look! That chef is making Adana kebab right now.

Elif: Oh, it smells great. We usually eat it at the weekends. My mother usually makes it at home. She uses minced meat, herbs and spices.

Mete: Yes, it is delicious. But wait, what is the chef in the next stall cooking?

Elif: He is cooking a big omelette.

Mete: Really? What are the ingredients?

Elif: I can see eggs, mushrooms and milk. He is mixing them right now.

Mete: I usually eat omelettes for breakfast, so I want something different for lunch. Let's look at that Asian stall.

Elif: They are preparing sushi.

Mete: Sushi? What do they put inside it?

Elif: They use salmon, rice and avocado. So, are you trying Adana kebab, the omelette or sushi?

Mete: I love our local food, Adana kebab, and the omelette looks great, too. But I usually eat the kebab or the omelette. I am looking for a completely different taste today, so I am choosing the sushi! Let's try it!

Elif: Great idea!
